Employment Opportunity – Seeking (4) Teacher Aides (TA's)

Position: The Big River First Nation is seeking (4) Full Time Teacher Aides for Mistahi Sipi Elementary School. The year will commence on August 25, 2020 and conclude on August 25, 2021. Mistahi Sipi Elementary School's present enrollment is approximately 360 students from Nursery to Grade 5. Mistahi Sipi provides a lunch program for its students (a nutritious breakfast as well as a hot lunch). The school has an Elder's Program where students can access cultural teachings.

Teacher Aides work with a licensed teacher to accomplish classroom objectives. Often, they supervise instructional activities to help students understand lessons. To accomplish this, teacher aides may work with small groups of students or with one student at a time. Teacher aide duties may also include helping teachers with clerical tasks like taking attendance or recording grades. Additionally, they may provide input with teachers on student performance, and they may oversee students outside of the classroom during field trips and related activities.
